

Finding Right Fit Books

A "right fit" book is a book that your child can enjoy reading on their own. Reading just right books helps your child develop as a reader. To find a book that is just the right fit for your child, try using the five finger test.

Here's how it works: Turn to a page in the middle of the book. As your child reads, hold up a finger for every word he/she doesn't know. Use the following guidelines:

Good choice for your child

3

Might need some help, but still a good choice

4

May be too difficult to read and understand. You may need to help

Probably too difficult for your child

Exceptional effort. I worked really hard and cannot think of anything I'd change to make it better.

Great effort. I think I can do one thing to make it better.

Okay effort, but I can think of many things to make it better.

Some effort. I completed the task but I may have rushed through it.

Little effort. I didn't finish.

Zero effort. I didn't try at all.
